Note: These materials are primarily for the use of Florida County Health Departments and community-based organizations. However, we will provide sample copies to others but not in quantity. More TB educational materials are available from TB governmental and voluntary agencies, such as the CDC website's online ordering system at <http://wwwn.cdc.gov/pubs/tb.aspx>. Another helpful website is the Refugee Health Information Network's website at <http://rhin.org/Default.aspx>.
