

From the Early Steps State Office

Winter 2009

Dear Friends,

Happy Holidays! As we celebrate the holidays and new year with loved ones, I encourage you to reach out and express holiday wishes and gratitude to the new friends you've met in Early Steps. Those include your Service Coordinator, Family Resource Specialist, and others who work so hard and truly care for your family! I've been involved with Early Steps as a parent many years ago when my family received services with my son and now at the Early Steps State Office. From one parent to another, I want to tell you that the caliber and heart of the people in Early Steps is by far the greatest I have ever witnessed! Many of the friends and families you meet as you continue your journey in and out of Early Steps will remain in your life for years to come. As we are approaching 2010, I can't help but think about the traditional New Year's Eve song, "Should old acquaintances be forgotten, and never brought to mind? Should old acquaintances be forgotten, and days of long ago!" As you celebrate all the exciting festivities this season and sing this song, please know that you have a great group of not only acquaintances at Early Steps, but true friends!

Wishing you a safe and fulfilling holiday from Early Steps and my family!

Sincerest Regards,

Kelly Purvis, Lead State Parent Consultant
