2. Page 27, Section 6.1 Eligibility Criteria, has been amended as follows:

Applicants must provide services and have a physical office located in the area where they are proposing to implement projects. Eligible areas include Broward, Duval, Hillsborough, Miami-Dade, Orange, Palm Beach and Pinellas counties. In an effort not to duplicate services in any location and to ensure service delivery in the areas of greatest need, the Department reserves the sole discretion to negotiate awards based on geographic coverage, epidemiologic data, competence to achieve the stated goals of the program, and access to priority populations. Applicants must demonstrate a proven track record of service to racial and ethnic populations. Applicants can only submit one application to provide services up to two of the eligible service areas.

Local Health Departments may be partners (unfunded) to applicants but cannot apply for grant funds. The applicant submitting an application must register in the state's MyFloridaMarketPlace system within five days after posting Intent of Award. For more
