

<http://fgcu.edu/events/promisingpathways/>

Call for Presentations

Submission Deadline: November 21, 2014

8th Annual Conference on Best Practices in Autism
Florida Gulf Coast University
April 11, 2015

Proposal Guidelines*

- Session Title (12 words)
- Topic (see below)
- Abstract (50 words)
- Participant Outcomes
- Session Description (research based, 300 words)

Additional guidelines provided on submission website.*

Please Note: We are adding sessions delivered in Spanish to this year's conference. If this is an option for you, please indicate so in your proposal.

Proposal Topics

- Communication
- Social Skills
- Positive Behavior Support
- Instructional Strategies
- Assistive Technology
- Adult Living

Contact Us

Conference Co-chairs,
Dr. Carolynne Gischel and
Ms. Leigh Anna Nowak, may be contacted at

PromisingPathways@FGCU.edu

The Planning Committee of the 8th Annual Promising Pathways Road to Best Practice in Autism invites you to submit proposals for presentations at the 2015 conference to be held April 11 at Florida Gulf Coast University in Fort Myers, Florida.

We are pleased to announce our 2015 keynote speaker will be Chantal Sicile-Kira, founder of AutismCollege.com and parent of a son with autism. Chantal will present on Living with Autism: Our Challenges, Our Strengths, Our Dreams.

The Promising Pathways conference is typically attended by more than 400 families, educators, and health care providers from across Florida and beyond. The conference is provided through a collaborative community effort with no fee to attendees or presenters. We hope you will take part in this important event by submitting a proposal!

Proposal Submissions:

<http://survey.fgcu.edu/Survey.aspx?s=11db6387a6554c9b9632a0964094f732>
Contact information, organization, and position/title must be entered for all presenters. Anticipated notification date for proposal acceptance is December 15, 2014. Please feel free to contact us with any questions.