INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR FLORIDA DEATH CERTIFICATE APPLICATION (FOR PURPOSE OF OBTAINING AN APOSTILLE OR NOTARIAL CERTIFICATE)

If you need assistance, please call our Apostille Unit at 904-359-6900, ext. 9006

Foreign embassies or consulates often require an apostille or notarial certificate for vital record certificates. The 1961 Hague Convention established the apostille as a form of authentication for its member states. The apostille certifies the authenticity of the issuing official's signature. Countries that are nonmembers of the 1961 Hague Convention are issued notarial certificates, which also authenticates the issuing official's signature. The Florida Secretary of State is the only designated Competent Authority to issue apostilles in the State of Florida.

Before ordering, we urge you to contact the nearest consulate or embassy for the country in which you will be using the apostille or notarial certificate to obtain their requirements for the vital record certificate.
