

Welcome to the POD

Welcome to the
[PROPERTY
NAME] Point of Dispensing (POD)

Medication for your household

How does medication dispensing work?

- ✓ You are entering a line to receive lifesaving medication
 - This medication is provided FREE of charge
 - You do not need health insurance to receive medication
 - You do not need an ID or proof of residency to receive medication

The Queue and You!

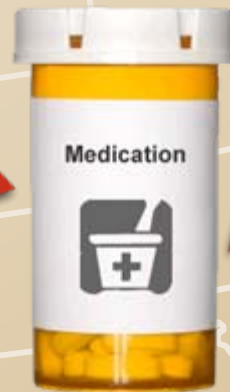

How does medication dispensing work?

- ✓ Stay in an orderly line for fastest delivery of medications
- ✓ There is plenty of medication, and everyone will be served

Steps for Dispensing

How does medication dispensing work?

Greeting

- Greeter welcomes you and gives you a form
- You fill in your form while waiting in line

Dispensing

- A Screener reviews your form
- A Dispenser gives you your medication and instructions

Exit

- An Exit Monitor will double-check your medication
- You leave the POD

Medication information

How does medication dispensing work?

You will receive one bottle of medication for each household member.

Each bottle has enough medication for one person for 10 days.

Have questions?

Volunteers are wearing colored vests. They are here to help you.

Serving our community

[PROPERTY
NAME] offers this facility as a Closed POD and provides Volunteers as a community service.

We are prepared

Our POD
program operates under the guidance of the [DOH
NAME]

Frequently Asked Questions

Head of Household

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Who is considered a head of household?

A head of household is any person responsible for picking up medication for all of the people listed on the Medication Screening Form.

Medication for kids

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Do my kids take the same medication as adults, and the same amount?

Information on children's doses is found in your Patient Information Packet.

Medication questions...

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

I'm pregnant. Can I take the medication?

The risk of illness is greater to you and your baby if you do not take the lifesaving medication.

Medication questions...

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

When do I take my medication?

Take your first dose(s) today, and then take the remaining daily dose(s) as instructed in the Patient Information Packet.

Medication questions...

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

What if I have medication allergies?

The Medication Screening Form lists the medication provided today. If you cannot take any of these medications, you will be referred to another facility.

General questions...

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

What if I have questions after I leave here?

- Refer to the Patient Information Packet in the bag with your medication
- Contact your health care professional
- Contact your Department of Health

