

Text for Heat Exhaustion

This is a message from the Florida Department of Health. Florida's sweltering temperatures can easily lead to heat exhaustion. Pace yourself when making storm damage repairs. If you can, avoid working during the hottest part of the day. Be sure to drink plenty of non-alcoholic beverages and rest when you are tired. By following these suggestions you can help avoid heat exhaustion and other more serious heat related illnesses.