

Take cover...from mosquitoes that is. Cover your skin with clothing and repellent, and cover doors and windows and screens to stop mosquitos from getting into your home. Don't forget to drain standing water from bird baths, flower pots, garbage cans or any place where water collects to stop mosquitoes from multiplying. Mosquitoes are most active at dusk and dawn, so limit outdoor activity during those times. Take the fight out of mosquitoes. Drain and cover.

A message from the Florida Department of Health. Visit floridashealth.com or contact your county health department.