

A New Online E-Learning Program for Emergency Physicians, Nurses and Other Providers

- FREE CME and CEU credits (7 Hours)
- Must use Internet Explorer 8 or higher, Google Chrome, Safari, or Mozilla Firefox

PECSI offers 8 modules and resources for healthcare professionals and students to enhance skills in the recognition and management of high-risk pediatric patients in emergent situations.

- Introduction to Pediatric Emergencies
- Initial Recognition of the Critically Ill Child
- Recognition and Management of Respiratory Failure
- Recognition and Management of Shock
- Recognition and Management of Cardiac Arrest
- Pitfalls in Pediatric Postresuscitation Care and Transfers
- Recognition of Legal and Risk Issues in Pediatric Emergencies
- Medication Safety

904-244-4986 • www.emedjax-pecsi.com

FUNDING The Pediatric Emergency Care Safety Initiative is funded through a two-year grant awarded to the University of Florida Health Science Center/Jacksonville Department of Emergency Medicine from Florida Medical Malpractice Joint Underwriting Association (FMMJUA).

Pediatric Emergency Care Safety Initiative

UF UNIVERSITY of
FLORIDA
College of Medicine
Jacksonville

Department of Emergency Medicine
pecsi@jax.ufl.edu

