

Bibliography and Helpful Resources

(Edited January, 2010)

The information for this training was compiled from many sources. This list below is provided to acknowledge contributors and to credit their work. This list has also been augmented with other resources that may be helpful to those striving to provide effective communication in the legal system.

Deafness and Hearing Loss

Hearing Loss Association of American (HLAA) – www.hearingloss.org

National Association for the Deaf – www.nad.org

Association of Late-Deafened Adults – www.alda.org

Florida Coordinating Council for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing - www.fccdhh.org

Florida Association of the Deaf - www.fadcentral.org

Hearing Loss Association of Florida – www.hla-fl.com

Working with Deaf-blind Individuals

National Consortium on Deaf Blindness – www.nationaldb.org

Florida Deaf- Blind Association- www.fldeafblind.org

ASL/Deaf Culture Information

National Association for the Deaf – www.nad.org

Florida Coordinating Council for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing- www.fccdhh.org

Assistive Technology

Telecommunications on Deaf and Hard of Hearing Inc. (TDI) - www.tdi-online.org

Florida Coordinating Council for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing - www.fccdhh.org

Florida Telecommunications Relay Inc.- www.ftri.org

Job Accommodation Network – www.jan.wvu.edu

Sorenson Video Relay Service- www.SorensonVRS.com

CSD Video Relay Service - www.zvrs.com

Communication Access Real-time Translation (CART)

Florida Court Reporters Association- www.fcraonline.org

“Communication Access Real-time Translation (CART) in the Courtroom: Model Guidelines,” which was a joint project by the American Judges Foundation and the National Court Reporters Foundation

<http://fcraonline.org/CART/guidelines.pdf>

Florida Coordinating Council for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing- www.fccdhh.org

INTERPRETERS

Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf – www.rid.org
Florida Registry of Interpreter for the Deaf - www.fridcentral.org
Model Code of Conduct for Interpreters Working in the Judiciary,
National Center for State Courts - www.ncsc.org
Florida Coordinating Council for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing- www.fccdhh.org
Communicating Effectively with Deaf, Hard of Hearing and Deaf/Blind clients: A Manual for Florida Attorneys, found at www.jaxlegalaid.org/v2/resources.pdf, and on the Florida Bar web page

Legal Obligations When Serving these Communities

Department of Justice – www.ada.gov
National Association for the Deaf – www.nad.org
Florida State Courts System’s ADA Guidelines – www.flcourts.org
Job Accommodation Network – www.jan.wvu.edu
National Center for State Courts - www.ncsc.org
Florida Coordinating Council for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing- www.fccdhh.org Communicating Effectively with Deaf, Hard of Hearing and Deaf/Blind clients: A Manual for Florida Attorneys, found at www.jaxlegalaid.org/v2/resources.pdf, and on the Florida Bar web page.
Commission For Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation, Inc. - www.flaccreditation.org

Other Helpful Web Pages

Commission For Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation, Inc.- www.flaccreditation.org
U.S. Census Bureau – www.census.gov/hhes/www//disability/disability.html
DBTAC: Southeast ADA Center- www.sedbtac.org
National Technical Institute for the Deaf - www.ntid.rit.edu