Currently, there is no official definition for violence-related injury in hospital data. Epidemiologist consulted with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). Violence-related injuries include self-harm, assault, and legal intervention. Legal Intervention includes "Injury or poisoning caused by police or other legal authorities (including security guards) during law enforcement activities. Includes injuries and poisonings (mace, pepper spray) inflicted during legal action or execution, or while attempting to enforce the law such as arrest or restraint of arrested persons" (Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 2007). Not all self-harm injuries are considered suicide attempts, as these two concepts are defined differently and self-harm can occur without suicidal intent.
