GENERAL SUBJECT MATTER TO BE CONSIDERED: Emergency Medical Services examinations and training programs.

AS NOTICED IN THE 7/7/2023, VOL 49/131 EDITION OF THE FLORIDA ADMINISTRATIVE REGISTER.

Comments may be submitted to: mike.hall@flhealth.gov. All relevant comments, including any personal information provided, will be posted without change to https://www.floridahealth.gov/licensing-and-regulation/ems-system/ems-rulemakingnotices/index.html.

You can add one or more 10-minute breaks if the workshop will be longer than one hour. Then during the workshop, at the designated break time, you can always poll the group about whether to skip that break. You can also poll the group about ending early if everyone who wants to comment has had a chance to do so.

Your opening remarks should include, at a minimum:

- 1. This workshop is being [audio or video and audio] recorded. The recording will be a part of the public rulemaking record, as will the Attendee Record and any comments that are submitted to the Department.
- 2. Persons who wish to speak must state their name, spell their last name, state the entity they represent, if any, and speak clearly. Comments that are inaudible cannot be considered.
- 3. Persons who wish to submit written materials must state their name, spell their last name, state the entity they represent, if any, and clearly state that they wish to submit written materials.
- 4. Persons who comment out-of-turn or disrupt the workshop will be asked to submit written comments only.
- 5. Department personnel will not be available for off-the-record discussion at any time, including during breaks and after the conclusion of the workshop.

[Do not answer any questions or otherwise discuss the rule outside of the workshop meeting. Private (not during a public meeting) discussions about an open rule - even if all you do is listen — are prohibited by the Administrative Procedure Act.]

6. The record will be held open until [select date and time] for the submission of written comments to the email address on the Notice of Workshop, the Agenda, and the Department website.
