

Strokes Happen Suddenly

Be Ready to BE FAST!

Balance

Loss

Loss of Balance or Coordination.
Headache or Dizziness.

Eyes

Blurred

Trouble seeing in one or both eyes, with blackened or blurred or double vision.

Face

Drooping

One side of the faced is drooping or numb.

Arm

Weakness

Weakness in the arm, leg, or face, especially on one side of the body.

Speech

Difficulty

Difficulty Speaking or Understanding Speech.

Time

to call

Seconds Count!
Call for an Ambulance IMMEDIATELY!

For more information, please visit the Florida Department of Health, Bureau of Chronic Disease Prevention at <http://www.floridahealth.gov/diseases-and-conditions/heart-disease/index.html>