

Florida Department of Health

Biomedical Research Advisory Council (BRAC) Grants

William G. “Bill” Bankhead Jr., and David Coley Cancer Research Program

James and Esther King Biomedical Research Program

Live Like Bella Pediatric Cancer Research Initiative

Addendum I

Changes to the Fiscal Year 2026-27 Funding Opportunity Announcement:

Page One: Letters of Intent Due amended to read, “September 2, 2026.” Applications Due amended to read, “October 21, 2026.”

Page 16: Table 5 is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the Table 5 herein.

Activity	Date	Key Information
FOA published	Anticipated: August 5, 2026	Located on the Biomedical Research Section's Funding Opportunity Announcements web page on the Department's website.
Letter of Intent (LOI) opens (required)	5 p.m., ET August 11, 2026	LOI must be submitted via the online system located on the Biomedical Research Section's Funding Opportunities web page. Applications without an LOI received by the deadline are not eligible and will not be considered.
Emailed questions accepted	Due by: 5 p.m., ET August 19, 2026	Email questions to: Research@flhealth.gov
Q&A posted online (answers to emailed questions)	Anticipated: August 21, 2026	Questions and answers will be published on the Biomedical Research Section's Funding Opportunity Announcements web page.
LOI (required)	Due by: Noon ET September 2, 2026	LOI must be submitted in the online system accessible from the Biomedical Research Section's Funding Opportunity Announcements web page. Applications without an LOI by the deadline are not eligible and will not be considered.
Application opens	Anticipated: September 8, 2026	Applications must be submitted in the online system located on the Biomedical Research Section's Funding Opportunity Announcements web page.
Applications due	Due by: Noon ET October 21, 2026	Applications must be submitted before the deadline. Applications being edited will not be accepted after the deadline.